

Located in Eagan, MN, Industrial Safety Group, Inc. (ISG) is an independent safety and environmental consulting company serving manufacturing clients. ISG is seeking an Environmental, Health and Safety Consultant to join us in servicing our growing client list as well as working toward expanding our client base.

job summary:

This full-time position is responsible for providing technical health, safety and environmental consulting services to minimize client liabilities and for ensuring client satisfaction. This will include planning, developing, implementing and maintaining a variety of programs to assure the highest degree of compliance. The successful candidate will be a self-starting leader who thrives working in a team atmosphere while pursuing best management practices.

position qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree or the equivalent in a related field preferred
- Safety-related designation preferred (CSP, ASP, CIH, etc.)
- 5-10 years of related experience in Safety and Environmental
- Must be competent and proficient with the Microsoft Office applications
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Thorough understanding of OSHA, EPA and DOT regulations
- Ability to interpret State and Federal regulations and applicability to facility to ensure compliance
- Ability to write regulatory reports, business correspondence and procedure manuals
- Demonstrate competency in program design, implementation, performance measurement and evaluation, process improvement and consulting.
- Strong planning, organizational and follow-up skills
- Excellent people and process management skills
- Excellent leadership skills and abilities
- Effectively present information and respond to questions from client manager and employee groups.
- Strong attention to detail and time-management skills

duties and responsibilities:

- Conduct safety assessments and gap analysis and deliver safety training as necessary to meet compliance requirements
- Communicate compliance status, key performance indicators, trends and priority issues to client
- Conduct site investigations, recommend and implement improvement/action plans to prevent similar incidents
- Develop course material and conduct dynamic training to ensure client meets regulatory compliance
- Assists in corresponding with regulatory agencies including MPCA, EPA and MN OSHA

- Explain complex compliance requirements and procedures in a way that is easily understood
- Work independently to provide on-site Health, Safety and Environmental support
- Develop and implement health, safety and environmental programs
- Facilitate employee and supervisory training
- Perform with a professional appearance and excellent customer service skills

compensation: Salary comparable to experience

contact: Send resume and references to mike@isg-mn.com